Introduction

The e-Orders program allows attorneys and trustees to upload proposed orders directly into CM/ECF while providing judges and court staff the ability to quickly review, route, sign, and docket orders. The program also allowing attorneys and trustees the ability to check the status of submitted orders.

Types of Orders That May be Submitted Using E-Orders

E-Orders should be used to submit any uncontested proposed orders.

Technical Requirements

Orders must be uploaded in PDF or PDF/A format and must contain the .pdf extension. Do not apply security to the PDF file. We recommend the orders be created using Word or WordPerfect and saved to the PDF format rather than scanning a printed copy of the document. This makes the order more legible and results in a text-searchable document.

Formatting Requirements (See Attachment 1 for a sample order)

1. The top margin on the first page must be 4 inches. All other pages of the order should have a 1-inch top margin.
2. Do not include a line for the date and signature of the judge. The judge will sign and date approved orders electronically in the space provided at the top of the first page.
3. The last line in the order must read ### END OF ORDER ###. This must be centered on the page to show the order is complete. Any signatures and/or attachments will be placed below this line.
4. Below ### END OF ORDER ###, place a statement identifying all parties who have consented to the proposed order. Identify the attorney drafting the order. For that attorney and for all parties consenting to the order, include names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses with active hyperlinks.
5. Below the names of the attorneys and parties who consented to the order, list any additional the names and addresses of other parties to whom the order should be sent. The order will always be sent to the debtor.

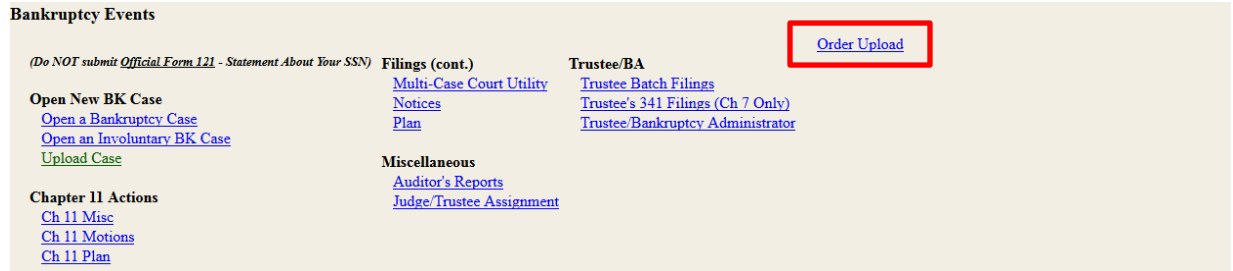

Noticing: All orders will be served on the debtor, debtor's counsel, the movant, movant's counsel, the trustee (chapter 13 or chapter 7), (BA, if applicable), counsel of any other party that objected to the motion, and all parties that have filed a Notice of Appearance in the cases asking that they received notice of filings/pleadings.

Orders will be returned to you before the judge sees them if they fail to meet the technical formatting requirements above or if other errors such as wrong names, misspelled names, and incorrect case numbers are found.

Replacing an Uploaded Order / Uploading an Additional Order

In some instances you may need to replace an order or you may need to upload a second order. For example, the judge might direct you to upload a revised order. The process of replacing an order or uploading an additional order is essentially the same as the upload process described above:

1. After the step 4 above, if an order has previously been submitted the system will prompt you to either upload another order or replace the order.
2. Check the appropriate radio button to either upload another order or replace the order and click Next.

If you are replacing an existing order, you must check the box next to the order to be replaced. An order cannot be replaced if the original order has already been routed to the judge. No filer can replace an order uploaded by another filer.

Checking the Status of a Submitted Order

The status of proposed orders uploaded into ECF can easily be checked by generating an order query from the ECF report menu.

1. Click Reports>Order Query.

2. Enter the case number and any optional parameters, and click Next.

Check Include proposed orders where no action was taken to display replaced or rejected orders.

Check Include proposed orders that have been docketed to display orders that have been signed and docketed.

Check Include proposed orders that are being processed to display orders that have been submitted and are awaiting review, signature, or entry.

3. The report will list all pending orders that match the search parameter.

If the status of the order is listed as being processed, the electronic order was received and is currently under review.

To see if an order in process has been signed but not docketed click the order number hyperlink to view the order. Signed orders will include a signature image and court seal at the top of page 1 of the order. (See Attachment 2)

Defective Orders

If the court determines a proposed order is defective, an e-mail will be sent to the submitting party. The e-mail may instruct the attorney to resubmit the order via the e-Order program. To resubmit, click on Bankruptcy>Order Upload>Single Order Upload, enter the same case number and related document number, and select Replace the Order(s). For more detailed information, see the section on Replacing an Uploaded Order.
