

Who Can Send Emails to Me?

When you request DeBN, you consent to service by email of ONLY orders and court-generated notices. The BNC will send emails to you on behalf of the court.

All other parties, including creditors, attorneys, and trustees, must serve documents upon you according to court rules by U.S. mail, overnight mail, or personal delivery.

How Long Am I Enrolled in DeBN?

You are enrolled in DeBN as long as your account is active.

This means you will receive electronic notice of orders and court-generated notices in any current or future bankruptcy case from any bankruptcy court in which your name and address in that case match the name and address on your DeBN account. This includes cases in which you are a creditor, plaintiff or defendant.

Can My Account Be Deactivated?

Your DeBN account will be deactivated if:

- 1) The BNC disables it because the BNC was notified that an email they sent was undeliverable;
- 2) You file a DeBN request form and mark the section to request deactivation; or
- 3) Your mailing address on file with the court changes and it no longer matches the DeBN account mailing address.

When Would I Need to File an Updated Request Form?

- Change your email address;
- File a new case after enrolling in DeBN (so the court can make sure your name and address in your DeBN account match your new case); or
- Wish to deactivate or reactivate your account.

What Are the Advantages of DeBN?

- DeBN is FREE - There is no charge to register or to view orders and court-generated notices sent to you by email.
- DeBN is FAST - Receive orders and court-generated notices the same day they are filed, and the same day your attorney receives them.
- DeBN is CONVENIENT - Access orders and court-generated notices anywhere you have internet access.

What Is DeBN?

Debtor Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (DeBN) is a free and voluntary service that allows debtors to request delivery of orders and court-generated notices by email rather than by U.S. Mail at a mailing address.

Who Is the BNC?

The Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) provides services to bankruptcy courts by sending orders and court-generated notices to debtors and other parties in bankruptcy cases by either mail or email.

What Are Orders and Court-Generated Notices?

Orders and court-generated notices are documents prepared and filed by bankruptcy courts. Here are some examples:

- Notice of Meeting of Creditors
- Notice of Deficient Filing
- Notice of Requirement to Complete Course in Financial Management
- Notice of Hearing
- Order Confirming Chapter 13 Plan
- Order Discharging Debtor
- Order on Motion for Relief from Stay
- Order Dismissing Debtor(s)

How Do I Get Started With DeBN?

Signing up for DeBN is easy!

1. Go to the court's website to complete and print the request form:

<https://www.almb.uscourts.gov/debn>

Be sure the form has a wet signature. The clerk's office cannot accept an electronic signature on this form.

2. Give the completed form to your attorney to file with the clerk's office.

If you are filing without an attorney, complete a copy of the form and submit it by email to almb_debn@almb.uscourts.gov, or drop it off at the intake counter of the bankruptcy clerk's office. You may also mail your completed form to:

U.S. Bankruptcy Court
ATTN: DeBN Account
One Church Street
Montgomery, AL 36104

3. The clerk's office creates your account.
4. When your account is activated you will receive a confirmation email from the BNC. All future orders and court-generated notices will only be delivered to you via email, as long as your name and address in the bankruptcy case match your name and address in your DeBN account and there are no email transmission failures.

Note: If both debtors in a joint case request enrollment in DeBN, each debtor must file a separate request form.

Is DeBN Free?

Yes, DeBN is free. There is no cost to view or save an order or court-generated notice.

Will DeBN Emails Contain More Than One Document?

No. Each order and court-generated notice is sent to you as a single PDF attachment to the email. A separate email is sent for each order and court-generated notice.

How Many Times Can I View a Document?

There is no limit to the number of times a PDF attachment can be viewed. PDF attachments can be printed, saved to a computer, or retained in an email for viewing any time.

What If a Document Is Too Big to Email?

If a PDF exceeds 8 MB of information, it is too large to send to you by email. In this instance, it will be sent by U.S. mail to your mailing address. Your DeBN account will remain active.
